

What is Align America? As an educational and informational resource, Align America's unbiased and non-partisan initiative is focused on improving Americans' political and social comprehension, creating a united vision, aligning businesses and organizations through common goals, and connecting the people more directly with their elected representatives.

What does Align America provide?

INFORMATION

Easy to understand facts, figures & the status and direction of America

Website - News, Reports, Literature, Videos and Tools

Social - Facebook & Twitter

Print - In direct mail, earned media coverage, direct marketing handouts

Media - Video presentations, news and television, YouTube channel

CONNECTION

People to people, people to government & businesses to other businesses

People - Shared vision and united commonality

Process - Involvement in and access to government and representatives

Business - Facilitate business collaboration & advocacy

Website - News, info, polls, Rep. connection, bill tracking

EDUCATION

Essentials of civic responsibility, personal accountability & government functions

Public - Educate on involvement, responsibility and values

Students - Exposure to historical facts and contemporary applications to maintain integrity & accountability

Corporate - Materials, resources and programs to connect businesses to one other to achieve common goals and educate employees

MOTIVATION

Accurate, organized and simple informational and educational methods foster action

It's Easy! - We simplified the ability to get involved, stay informed, and understand what it all means

Actionable - Our results driven approach assures that efforts will have results

Logical - Unbiased facts provide the clarity to make informed decisions and take action

EMPOWERED

Align America provides the tools for "the people" to be involved in affecting positive change

Resources - Information, web applications and materials

Community - The collective voice of Americans working toward shared goals

Organized - Support from a network of informed and aligned representatives and volunteers

How does this benefit you? Through education and information, Align America will unite the American people with a refreshed and common foundation. An educated and informed society aligned with a renewed focus on simple, common sense ideas and solutions will guide America toward an enduring future. Our continuing initiatives will benefit all Americans by promoting and protecting prosperity and ensuring the power of the people directs our nation.

Join

Website, Facebook & Twitter

Share

Friends, family & co-workers

Support

Invest in your future

Vote

Participate each election

Spend Smart

Buy American products